

FOREIGN NEWS.

President Harrison and the Apology
—In Favor of Egan's Recall.

The New Ministry for Canada—
Other Interesting Dispatches.

The following foreign news is clipped from late Colonial papers received on the Mariposa:

The Chilean Affair.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—President Harrison explains that Chile's reply was received prior to the issue of the United States ultimatum, but it was not translated, for the reason that its receipt had not been mentioned to the Cabinet.

Chile suggests that Spain and Brazil should arbitrate.

President Harrison recommends the acceptance of the Chilean apology, and the recalling of Egan.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Mr. J. G. Blaine expresses himself satisfied with the apology tendered by Chile. Congress has referred the apology to a committee.

VALPARAISO, Jan. 28.—The Chilean Government has received numerous expressions of sympathy at the position they have been forced into by the United States.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The Times says that President Harrison has been guilty of sharp practice in connection with the Chilean incident, and accuses him of browbeating the South American Republic for the purpose of making political capital out of the affair.

Evicted Tenants.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—The statement published by Michael Davitt shows that £1500 was collected last year in aid of evicted tenants, which sum was sufficient to administer temporary relief to 1400 families. The funds are now exhausted, and Mr. Davitt invites the Parnellites to show a spirit of generous rivalry in collecting money for the relief of tenants during the current year.

Rossendale Election.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—The Times says it is not surprised at the result of the Rossendale election, and characterizes the success of the Gladstone party as a victory of a kind.

The Daily News looks upon the contest as the most important since the last general election, and declares that the brilliant triumph achieved by Mr. Gladstone and his followers proves that the public dissent from the contention that the Liberal policy is a sham.

PARIS, Jan. 25.—The French press are in ecstasy over the result of the Rossendale election which they contend has sounded the death knell of the Salisbury administration and jingoism in Egypt.

Strike Riot in Spain.

MADRID, Jan. 27.—Five hundred miners who went out on strike at Bilbao, raised a riot, and the military, who had to be summoned, were compelled to fire in order to disperse the mob. Many of the rioters were wounded.

Canada's New Ministry.

OTTAWA, Jan. 26.—The principal portfolios in the Dominion Ministry are now held as follows: Premier, J. J. C. Abbott; minister of justice, Sir J. S. D. Thompson; minister of finance, G. E. Foster; minister of militia, J. A. Chapleau; minister of revenue, C. H. Tupper.

The Influenza.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—One thousand five hundred of the London police are down with influenza. Influenza is still raging in Paris; 300 deaths are recorded weekly, and in Vienna the mortality is even greater, reaching 500 per week.

Italian Chamber of Deputies.
ROME, Jan. 21.—Signor Crispi and Marquis di Rudini quarrelled in the Chamber of Deputies owing to a letter written by the former, accusing Rudini of placating France in connection with the pilgrimage episode.

Home Rule For Ireland.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—In the course of a speech, Mr. Herbert Gladstone, M. P. for the Western Division of Leeds, advised the Labor party to co-operate with the Liberals, as by that means they would secure better representation in the House of Commons. The Daily News urges the rival sections of the Irish party to re-unite, and points out that the result of the Rossendale election proves the determination of the Liberals to secure Home Rule for Ireland.

MELBOURNE, Jan. 29.—The Government have promised to grant £15,000 towards the representation of the colony at Chicago if the exhibitors will raise £5000. They think there should be only one Australasian Court, each colony, however, controlling its own exhibits.

Notes.

The Liberals are organizing a great campaign, to be held in London in February and March, in view of the general election.

England's Premier suggests that Portugal sell Mozambique, in order to reduce the national debt. The suggestion has been well received.

A German Imperial and Prussian

3 per cent. loan of 300,000,000 marks is likely to be placed on the market at an early date.

The death is announced of Sir Oscar Clayton, extra-surgeon in ordinary to the Prince of Wales, and surgeon in ordinary to the Duke of Edinburgh.

The Portuguese press are unanimous in supporting the proposal that the colonies should be sold in order to reduce the national debt.

ADELAIDE, Jan. 29.—The working of steamers in port on Sundays is prohibited in every case with the exception of the landing of mails.

Fifteen hundred cabmen in the city of Paris have petitioned Parliament for the loan of 400,000 francs with which to purchase cabs. They promise to repay a tenth of the loan annually.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—Ten steamers with 4100 members of the Salvation Army on board will meet General Booth on his return from the Australian colonies and India on Sunday. After his arrival the General will review 10,000 of the Army in Hyde park.

BERLIN, Jan. 23.—The Committee of the Reichstag propose to admit until April 23 the import of corn, wine and timber into Germany from countries not belonging to the "Favored Nations" treaty at the favored nation rate.

It has been arranged to hold the Conference on the Behring Sea difficulty in Washington.

Intelligence is to hand that the French troops attacked Samoury, in the Upper Niger district, killing hundreds of Samoury troops. The loss on the French side was six killed and thirty wounded.

Severe weather has been experienced throughout America.

The Coinage Committee of the American House of Representatives by 8 to 5 have decided to report favorably on the Free Silver Coinage Bill. The committee defeated the proposal for an International Monetary Conference.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Doubts are expressed in the city whether any powerful London bank would be willing to take the Queensland business in face of the attack made on the management of the Bank of England by Sir T. Mellor.

Pessimistic views prevail in the city respecting the financial situation of the Colonies, and complaints are rife that no real efforts are being made by the various Governments to effect retrenchment or impose fresh taxation.

The general impression in financial circles is that Colonial stocks will fall still lower.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—An unsuccessful attempt was made to wreck the train by which Mr. T. W. Russell, the Unionist member for the southern division of Tyrone, was travelling to Omagh, the principal town of the county.
